

SHORTLIST

Handle with Flair

Knock, knock. Who's there? Gianluca Longo with a special delivery of first-class hardware guaranteed to return doors and drawers to rightful splendour. Whether you prefer your bronze burnished or your nickel polished, a classic style or something that pushes the envelope, our style director's given you much to unpack here. Photography: Rowan Corr

Clockwise from top: antique-brass 'LV5179' lever handle, £265, Pemberton & Sons. Burnished-brass 'Barrel Bracket' cabinet pull, £483 for a pair, Turnstyle Designs. Mid-antique-brass 'Granville' knob, from £55, Joseph Giles. Burnished-brass 'Traditional' knocker with fluted ring, from £1,200, The Nanz Company

SHORTLIST

Clockwise from top left: polished-nickel 'Digby' sprung handle, £108, Corston. Satin-nickel 'Roped Georgian' knob with polished-nickel centre, £525, The Nanz Company. Polished-nickel 'BP1123' knob, £306, Beardmore. Alupewt and satin-nickel 'Diamond Plinth Amalfine' lever handle, £403 for a pair; polished-nickel 'Sphere' knob, £452 for a pair; both Turnstyle Designs. Polished-nickel-brass 'Hazel' hinge, £38.40 for a pair, Corston